Certificate of Residency

for submission to Göttingen University (to be filled out from your local German residents' registration office – "Einwohnermeldeamt")

Only required for

- prospective students having their main place of residence with their husband/wife and/or children in the administrative districts/municipalities allocated to the place of study,
- prospective students who live under recognised special circumstances regarding their state of health and/or social or familial situation, so that taking up studies at another place of study would place them at a significant disadvantage,
- prospective students with their main place of residence at their parents' home in the administrative districts/municipalities allocated to the place of study,
- prospective students having their main place of residence in Lower Saxony.
