10 REASONS to study at the Faculty of Law in the UNIVERSITY OF GRANADA

A high-ranking university

1. The UGR is recognised internationally for its quality in higher education, teaching, research and outreach. National and international rankings reflect the UGR's position among the top universities in Spain and among the best in the world.

According to the 2016 edition of the prestigious ARWU-Shanghai Ranking, the UGR is ranked second in Spain and among the top 50 in the world in Engineering, Technology and Computer Sciences.

International experience

2. The UGR is the favourite destination for European exchange students (Erasmus+). It has more incoming and outgoing Erasmus students than any other European institution.

The UGR participates in more than 800 bilateral and multilateral exchanges with institutions around the world. The UGR is a welcoming cosmopolitan university: about 10% of the students enrolled are international students.

A wide range of programmes and degrees

3. The UGR offers a wide selection of high quality academic programmes with a clear international vocation. In the 2016/17 academic year the UGR offers:

- 75 undergraduate degree programmes in a wide range of fields
- 103 master's programmes including: 3 Erasmus Mundus and Erasmus+, 6 bilingual (Spanish-English) and 2 taught entirely in English
- 27 doctoral programmes in three interdisciplinary doctoral schools
- And an extensive offer of expert courses, summer schools and on-line courses.

4. Student can also learn Spanish and other languages with the 10.000 local and international students who enroll each year in courses offered by the UGR's Centre of Modern Languages, Confucius Institute (Chinese), Russkiy Mir Centre (Russian) and Chair of Arabic Al-Babtain.

Quality of facilities and activities

5. The UGR offers a wide range of quality services for its students and staff covering all aspects of university life (housing, libraries, Wi-Fi, refectories, disabled facilities, sports and much more).

Top Research and International Experience

6. The UGR is recognized internationally for its excellence in research in many fields, including ICT, Health Science, Cultural Heritage, and Linguistics. Its 400+ research groups work in all areas of scientific knowledge. They collaborate with national and international scientific leaders in their fields, and with the broader industry. The UGR participates in more than 800 bilateral and multilateral exchanges with institutions around the world.

University, city and surroundings

7. The UGR's schools and campuses merge directly with the city, making Granada a true student environment (more than 60.000 students in a city of 250.000 inhabitants). It also has campuses in the North African cities of Ceuta and Melilla, making it a truly intercontinental institution.

8. Granada, a safe modern city, also has an outstanding geographical location just 40 minutes from the Mediterranean Coast with its tropical climate, and 30 minutes from the ski resort of Sierra Nevada.

9. Granada is an enchanting city, full of monuments, history and, of course, the University. Along with its charm, its many cultural and recreational activities make it a great city to explore and a magnificent destination for students from around the world. Granada also offers a wide range of cultural activities, including the festival of flamenco, jazz, tango, theatre, poetry, magic, music and dance.

Solidarity and environment

10. The UGR is a university that is committed to solidarity and the environment. Students and staff take part in local community service and international development cooperation activities. Students work in an environment of diversity, equality and tolerance.

THE CENTRE FOR MODERN LANGUAGES

For detailed information regarding the courses and exams offered by the CLM please visit: www.clm-granada.com

The University of Granada's Centre for Modern Languages (CLM) offers both local and international students a multicultural and multilingual environment where world perspectives and traditions are exchanged daily. Over 5,000 students from 35 different countries around the world come yearly to the CLM to study Spanish language and culture, while Spanish students study other modern languages in the classrooms right next door. Recognized by the Cervantes Institute for excellence in the delivery of a broad array of language programmes, the CLM is a pioneer in Spanish language instruction for international students, with origins that date to the delivery of its first programme nearly 50 years ago.

Upon arrival, students take a language placement test and are placed into one of nine levels of Spanish language taught at the CLM. Utilizing a communicative approach in the classroom and the most up-to-date technologies, highly qualified faculty provide students with a programme of instruction designed to immerse them fully in the language. Special emphasis is given to interactions in real-life situations.

The CLM provides many additional services including free WiFi, accommodation with host families or in shared flats and medical insurance.

COURSES AT THE CENTRE FOR MODERN LANGUAGES

- Intensive Spanish Language Courses are offered every month of the year (January – December). Intensive classes are taught 4 hours/day, 5 days/week, for duration of 2, 3 or 4 weeks. (See the online Calendar for exact dates.)
- The Hispanic Studies Course and the Spanish Language and Culture Course, are semester-long programmes in which students combine the study of Spanish language with elective classes selected from a wide range of options in areas such as economics, history, politics and literature.
- Intensive Spanish Language and Culture Courses are offered during the summer months (June, July and August). Students are enrolled in 5 hours of class per day, 5 days/week, for 4 weeks and combine Spanish language study with elective classes chosen from various subjects.

Modern Language Courses

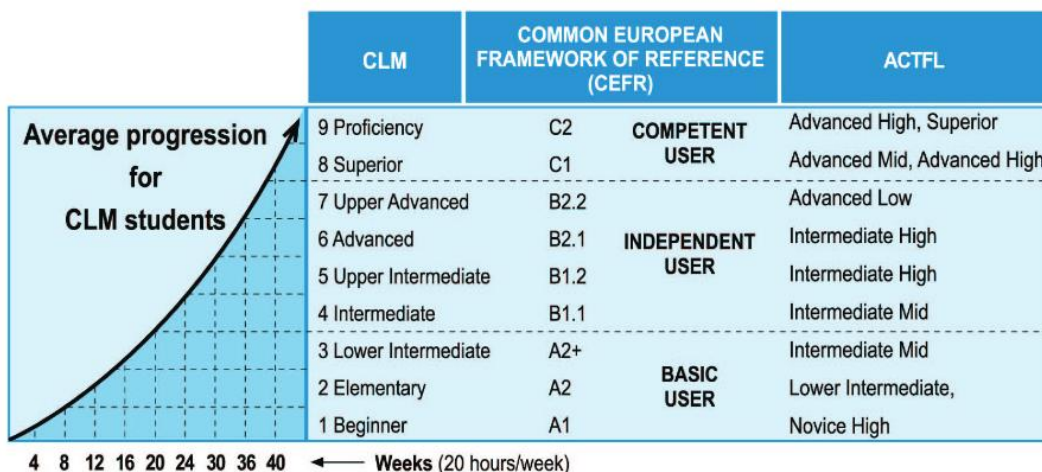

Students can begin or continue their studies in other modern languages offered at the CLM (English, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese, Romanian and Swedish) or in conjunction with the Chair for Arabic Al-Babtain, the Confucius Institute (Chinese) and the Russkiy Mir Centre (Russian).

For detailed course descriptions and programme dates, visit: www.clm-granada.com

eLADE

The CLM at the University of Granada also offers an on-line Spanish proficiency test for the certification of B1 and B2 levels. The oral component of the test is conducted via Skype. Test takers can sit the exam anywhere in the world (in a venue authorized by the CLM).
