WHICH INSTITUTIONS CAN HOLD eLADE?

The exam can be held at any official institution that has been accredited for this purpose. The administration centre must be an educational establishment - secondary school, high school, university faculty, college of further education, or language school - or an administrative centre - embassy, consulate, or vice-chancellory etc.

The centre must provide an exam administrator who can speak Spanish, English, French or German and who will liaise on behalf of the accredited centre with the eLADE examiners.

TYPES OF CERTIFIED TEST EXAMINATION SITES

- Occasional Examination Site. Valid for a particular exam call, usually upon request by an individual student or a group of them. In this case, a confidentiality agreement is required, according to the conditions described in this link: <http://bit.ly/29RV7Fh>
- Permanent Examination Site. By means of a binding and permanent agreement requested by the applicant Examination Site. The Examination Site will receive 20% of each candidate's examination fees.
