

2019 ESIL Research Forum Göttingen, 3-5 April 2019

IG Meeting 'The Rule of Law and International Law in Historical Perspective', convened by the Interest Group on the History of International Law

3 April 2019, 13.00-16.45

Central Lecture Hall Building (Zentrales Hörsaalgebäude), Platz der Göttinger Sieben 5, 37073 Göttingen.

Programme:

13.00-13.15

Welcome and Introduction to the workshop

Jan Lemnitzer (University of Southern Denmark)

13.15-14.45 Panel 1:

Chair: Jan Lemnitzer (University of Southern Denmark)

Alan Nissel, Capitalism and the Evolution of State Responsibility: How US Law became Binding upon New States and, Ultimately, Everyone Else

Ryan Mitchell (Chinese University of Hong Kong), International Rule of Law and the Problem of Legal Sanction: War and the Zwangsordnung

Andre Nunes Chaib (MPI Luxemburg), The Various Sides of a Coin: Ideas of Rule of Law in the Ideology of International Adjudication

15.15-16.45 Panel 2:

Chair: TBC

Denise Wohlwend (University of Fribourg (CH)), The Rule of Law in the Debates of the Sixth Committee of the United Nations General Assembly – Reflections on the Evolution and Universality of the Concept

Premislaw Tacik (Jagellonian University, Krakow), The Evolution of the Rule of Law in the Framework of the European Convention on Human Rights

The conveners of the Steering Committee for the ESIL Interest Group History of International Law:

Jan Lemnitzer (University of Southern Denmark)

Markus Beham (Passau)

Martin Clark (LSE)

Frederik Dhondt (Brussels/Antwerp)

Hossein Piran (US/Iran Claims Tribunal)